JEA Fuels Management Services Responsible Bidders List Categories

Listed below are the product categories for which JEA FMS solicits bids. You may choose to compete in as many categories as your organization is qualified to provide. For each category, furnish all of the requested information.

JEA FMS will send a bid solicitation to the email address and/or fax number that you provide under each category. It is your responsibility to make sure JEA FMS has the most current contact information for your organization. (Attachment B is the form your organization should use to update FMS of any contact information changes). If JEA FMS has incorrect contact information, the bid solicitation document may not be received by your organization.

If your organization does not respond with a bid or a no-bid to three successive bid solicitations, JEA FMS may, at its discretion, remove your organization from the FMS RBL and your organization will no longer receive JEA FMS bid solicitations for that particular category. Once your organization is removed from a FMS RBL for non-response, you may have to submit a new application for reconsideration.
